Loses His Trousers Seeking Fresh Air

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 25.—Smith Bowers, on his way from Chicago, to Los Angeles, didn't figure on the periodical winds that spring up on the desert when he arose early in the morning near Ontario and began to dress.

To get a much needed breath of fresh air into his Pullman berth, Bowers opened the window and the next instant saw his trousers in the pockets of which were his return ticket and $180, disappear out of the window.

He was compelled to wear a blanket until a searching party could be sent out from Ontario, locate the elusive pantaloons and send them to Bowers in Los Angeles.

PERT PARAGRAPHS

Every woman knows that she can be her own beauty doctor, but prefers the work of a more experienced masseur.

A Chicago pastor refuses to marry couples who are not physically sound, but we presume he winked at love-sickness.

According to a fashion authority, styles in women's hats this year are to be "more sensible." Going to raise garden truck on them?

Certain dreamers talk about the millennium, but it will only come when baseball fans take the word of the umpire without a murmur.

China now has a native aviator of its own. Very likely China before long will go to talking about the backward civilization of the occident.

A lady named Yik Yik Ying is reported to be at the head of the woman suffrage movement in China. Nobody can accuse her of not being a Y's woman.

A five-story pickle factory in Chicago was destroyed by fire the other day. But, then, one could hardly expect a pickle factory to be preserved.

Allen Adjudged Insane.

The Waynesville Courier of recent date has something to say about "detective" Cheophas Allen who is well known to Hendersonville people and who on numerous occasions has furnished "juicy" material for the lovers of the humorous and who was quite conspicuous here about a year ago. An extract from the article in the Courier says:

"Cheophas Allen was Thursday afternoon committed to jail after a hearing before Clerk of the Court J. R. Leatherwood in lunacy proceedings. He was arrested at the shop of Rufe Edwards near the station and it required five officers to take him to the court house. He made a hard fight, breaking some of the furniture and mauling up the shop and the officers had a hard time in handling him without hurting him."

This is good shooting, and very few of the shooters who took part in the State shoot at Wilmington last month coualed it.

We have at least five men who are well equipped to enter the State shoot next season, and any one of them can "shoot into the money."

Hendersonville has a good show to win the State Championship next year.

There will be the regular weekly shoot on Thursday afternoon at 5 p. m. The sixth and final shoot for the Dupont Trophy will probably be held on Labor Day, Sept. 1.

Everybody is welcome, whether as a spectator or a participant. Guns and shells furnished on the grounds.
